Editorial

The Côte d'Azur France delegation is delighted to visit you in London to offer you in exclusivity the visit of this iconic Chanel exhibition.

A great opportunity for us to promote our destination and the new offer thanks to huge renovation and investments in hotel industry.

In 2023, the UK was the first foreign market for the Côte d'Azur in commercial accommodation.

Once again this year, our international B2B and press activities will support airlines that service our Côte d'Azur France destination all year round.

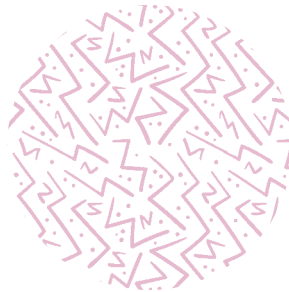

The historical relations between the UK and the Côte d'Azur remain very strong: more than 90 direct flights per week in winter and nearly 200 direct flights in summer period between London (and 12 other main British cities) and Nice Côte d'Azur International Airport.

There are so many reasons to visit the Côte d'Azur: it's a real-life movie set, with its special light all year round and the beauty of its natural sites between sea and mountain.

The Côte d'Azur is also a paradise for garden lovers, a heritage that we celebrate every two years with the "Festival des Jardins de la Côte d'Azur", the next festival in 2025 will be featuring the rose Centifolia produced in Côte d'Azur and used in perfumery by Chanel in the iconic N°5!

We really look forward to meeting you to share all the latest news, and we wish you a warm welcome from #CotedAzurFrance!

TOURISM OFFICE PAYS DE GRASSE

THE PAYS DE GRASSE has turned its main activity into an art! In the winding streets of the Perfume Capital, tourist perfumeries such as Fragonard, Galimard, and Molinard open their doors, sharing their exciting experience in the mysterious alchemy of fragrances, allowing visitors to initiate themselves into the art of perfume creation. A true luxury art, as the profession of perfumer is not something improvised.

The historic center of Grasse is home to numerous artisan perfumers who will gladly introduce you to their workshops and their unique creations.

If you want to know everything about the history and mysteries of perfume, a visit to the International Perfume Museum (MIP) is a must. It is a unique museum dedicated to the promotion of the world heritage of scents, aromas, and perfumes, allowing you to continue the enchanting journey into the world of perfume in Pays de Grasse with exclusive visits to fields of Centifolia May rose, jasmine, or tuberose. This helps to better understand, appreciate, and be captivated by the know-how in the cultivation and harvesting of these delicate flowers, symbols of high perfumery.

The know-how related to Perfume in Pays de Grasse has been inscribed on the UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity since November 28, 2018.

LATEST NEWS 2024:

- Great perfume houses settle down in Grasse like the « Domaine de la Rose Lancôme ».

CHÂTEAU DE THÉOULE 5*

CHÂTEAU DE THÉOULE will be a 5-star hotel, located near the Estérel massif and the Mediterranean sea, in Théoule-sur-Mer.

This confidential address boasts one of the finest views on Côte d'Azur. It will feature 44 rooms and suites with sea views, two restaurants and bars, a spa, a private beach and a boutique.

Château de Théoule was originally a soap factory built in 1630, and at the time of the Queen of Hungary, only the Monks of Montpellier were granted the exclusive privilege of making lavender and sage-based eau de parfum known as "Les Simples".

Millésime perpetuates the story through the ages, from French sovereigns to the empresses of the world, who alternated between the Basque coast in summer and the Côte d'Azur in winter.

The Château, a witness to history, has stood the test of time, from Egypt to the time of Napoleon III, and finally adopted a Scottish style in 1910, which explains its current appearance.

Millésime has been given the privilege of leaving its mark on the millennia-old story of Château de Théoule, creating an authentic visual and sensory identity in our wonderful region dedicated to the very essence of perfume.

LATEST NEWS 2024:

THE CHÂTEAU DE CRÉMAT • CRÉMAT CASTLE

THE CHÂTEAU DE CRÉMAT is a vineyard estate of approximately 12 hectares, it has been a place of viticulture since Roman times.

Located on the heights of Nice, it is first and foremost an organic and AOP vineyard. It was owned by unconventional and visionary individuals who turned it into an architectural jewel.

Completely renovated a few years ago, it now reveals all its charm under its red robe, with the flamboyant colors of Nice.

In the heart of the secluded Bellet Vineyard, the Château de Crémât stands as an architectural gem on the heights of Nice, nestled between the sea and the mountains.

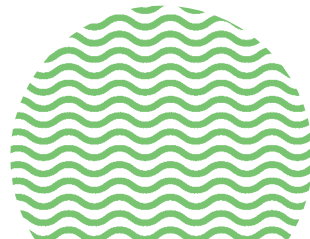

It distinguishes itself with its majestic contemporary glass structure, creating an atmosphere that is both elegant, modern, and warm.

Its history and uniqueness intrigue and fascinate visitors!

The castle is an iconic place where the art of winemaking blends with the culture of the French Riviera to offer a unique experience.
