MANDELIEU- LA NAPOULE

CHÂTEAU DE LA NAPOULE

Nestled on the Mediterranean shoreline between Cannes and Théoule-sur-Mer, Château de La Napoule is one of the French Riviera's most distinctive and prestigious event venues. Combining centuries of history with contemporary artistic influences, the Château offers an exceptional setting where medieval architecture, romantic gardens, modern art and breathtaking sea views come together to create truly unforgettable experiences.

Whether hosting an elegant wedding, a prestigious gala dinner, an exclusive product launch, an incentive programme or a private celebration, the Château offers remarkable flexibility through its collection of indoor and outdoor spaces. Each area has its own unique atmosphere, allowing every event to be entirely customised while preserving the authenticity and charm of this historic monument.

From intimate receptions of around 50 guests to large-scale events welcoming more than 500 attendees, the venue adapts seamlessly to every occasion. The French and English Gardens, Lovers' Garden, Cour d'Honneur, Sea Terraces, Gothic Dining Room, Salon Marie Clews and Spencer Gallery each provide distinctive settings that can be combined to create a unique guest journey throughout the event.

For large celebrations and corporate productions, elegant temporary structures can be installed within the Cour d'Honneur, significantly increasing the venue's capacity while maintaining the exceptional character of the Château. This flexibility allows the organisation of award ceremonies, luxury brand activations, seated dinners, cocktail receptions and weddings on a much larger scale.

Beyond its remarkable setting, Château de La Napoule is renowned for its experienced events team, dedicated to delivering bespoke experiences and coordinating with carefully selected partners to ensure the highest standards of service, production and guest experience.

More than simply a venue, Château de La Napoule offers a unique destination where heritage, elegance, creativity and the Mediterranean lifestyle come together to create extraordinary events that leave a lasting impression.

VILLA EPHRUSSI DE ROTHSCHILD

Villa Ephrussi de Rothschild is located in Saint-Jean-Cap-Ferrat, between Nice (9 km away) and Monaco (15 km away). This Museum, owned by the Académie des Beaux-Arts of the Institut de France, is one of the former properties of Baroness Béatrice de Rothschild (1864–1934), wife of Baron Maurice Ephrussi (1848–1916).

Born at the Château de Ferrières near Paris, Baroness Béatrice Ephrussi de Rothschild commissioned this lavish Belle Époque-style residence, which was built between 1905 and 1912 on the Saint-Jean-Cap-Ferrat peninsula, to house her art collections; mainly composed of 18th-century works. Visitors can admire pieces by renowned artists of the era, such as Boucher, Fragonard, Coypel, Schall, Tiepolo, Dubois, Riesener, and Hache. The Villa is surrounded by nine magnificent, themed gardens, each reflecting the Baroness's passion for travel.
